10 Day Free Look Provision

Renewability

Coverage under this policy is non-renewable. Issuance of a second or subsequent policy to a covered person under this policy does not continue coverage. Each benefit period is separate and distinct from any prior benefit period. You must submit a new application and be approved for coverage. Any illness or injury which may have occurred under a prior benefit period will be subject to the pre-existing condition provision during this benefit period.

Exclusions & Limitations

Except as specifically provided for in the policy or mandated by law, the policy does not cover:

preexisting conditions • expenses incurred before the effective date • expenses incurred after coverage under the policy terminates, regardless of when the condition originated • expenses incurred to treat complications resulting from treatment, drugs, supplies, devices, procedures or conditions which are not covered under the policy • experimental, investigational, or unproven services • expenses determined to be educational • amounts in excess of the usual, reasonable and customary charges • expenses the covered person is not required to pay • care in government institutions unless the covered person is obligated to pay for such care • charges incurred for illness or injury that arise out of, as a result of, or in the course of employment • non-emergency treatment received outside of the United States • charges incurred by a covered person while on active duty in the Armed Services • expenses resulting from a declared or undeclared war, or from voluntary participation in a riot or insurrection • expenses incurred or expense related thereto, while engaging in an illegal act or occupation or during the commission, or the attempted commission, of a felony • expenses incurred while participating in professional, semi-professional or intercollegiate sports, or while participating in a rodeo, either professional or for recreation • pregnancy or childbirth, except for complications of pregnancy • charges incurred for voluntary termination of pregnancy • any drug, implants or injections, supply, treatment, device or procedure that prevents or terminates conception and/or childbirth • treatment of infertility • any drugs, supplies, treatments, devices or procedures related to sex transformation or reversal thereof, sexual dysfunctions, penile implants or sexual inadequacies • sterilization or reversal of sterilization • physical exams or other services or supplies not needed for medical treatment • treatment of alcoholism • treatment of chemical dependency, substance abuse and/or drug addiction • psychiatric care • prophylactic treatment, including surgery or diagnostic testing • programs, treatment, supplies, or procedures for tobacco use cessation • expenses resulting from intentional self-inflicted injury, suicide or attempted suicide, whether sane or insane • charges incurred which result from: (a) the voluntary taking of drugs, except those taken as prescribed by a physician, (b) the voluntary taking of poison, (c) the voluntary inhaling of gas, or (d) being intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic unless administered on the advice of a physician • dental treatment or care • orthodontia or other treatment involving the teeth and supporting structures • surgical or non-surgical correction of refractive error; vision therapy; routine vision exams; eyeglasses or contact lenses for the treatment of aphakia • routine hearing exams to assess the need for or change to hearing aids; the purchase, fittings or adjustments of hearing aids • cosmetic or reconstructive procedures, services or supplies • charges for breast reduction unless medically necessary • charges for breast augmentation • removal of breast implants • medications and drugs, including vitamins and vitamin–mineral supplements, available over-the-counter (OTC) whether or not by a physician's prescription order • any expense related to the treatment of hair loss • treatment of weak, strained, flat, unstable, or unbalanced feet, metatarsalgia, bunions or the removal of corns, calluses or toenails • charges for blood or blood plasma that has been replaced • treatment of autism, developmental delays and learning disabilities, testing and training for education or vocation • treatment of acne • treatment of obesity, including surgery for reconstruction, repair or reversal of a gastric bypass • transportation charges • services or supplies for personal comfort or convenience, including custodial care or homemaker services • services and/or supplies furnished and/or provided by an immediate family member • any charges incurred in connection with a hospital admission from noon on Friday to noon on Sunday unless the attending physician states in writing that the admission was an emergency or surgery followed the admission • immunizations not necessary for the treatment of an illness or injury except those covered under the Child Health Supervision Services Benefit • expenses incurred for occupational therapy • acupuncture unless the charges incurred are in lieu of anesthesia • marriage or family counseling • sex therapy • private duty nursing while not confined in a hospital • hypodermic needles, syringes, support garments, other non-medical items, regardless of their intended use • growth hormones, drugs prescribed for weight control or obesity, smoking deterrents, Rogaine, Retin A, drugs prescribed for cosmetic purposes, vitamins and minerals regardless of the purpose for which prescribed

Pre-Existing Conditions–Limitation

An illness or injury of a covered person for which the covered person has received medical advice, treatment, services, diagnostic tests, consultation or medication during the three years prior to the covered person's effective date of coverage under the policy; or, during the three years prior to the covered person's effective date of coverage under the policy there were symptoms, whether or not a diagnosis has been made, which would cause an ordinarily prudent person to have an examination or to seek diagnosis, care or treatment.

Termination of Insurance

Insurance will remain in force until the earliest of:

- The date there is fraud or material misrepresentation with regard to the policy or its benefits.
- The date the insured's premium is due if not received by the end of the grace period.
- The premium due date following the date the policy terminates.
- The date of death of the covered insured.
- The premium due date following the date the insurer terminates all policies in Georgia.
- Dependent child's coverage ends on the premium due date following the date the covered child's eligibility ends. (Termination of insured's insurance will also result in dependent termination.)

Unless terminated due to any of the above, coverage will remain in force for up to 6 months as long as you prepay or as long as you pay each monthly premium when due. If not prepaying, it is your responsibility to mail your monthly premium remittance coupon with the amount due.

Failure to fully disclose information can result in rescission (voiding) of coverage and the denial of a claim. Please refer to the Application and the Policy for further details.

This brochure is a brief description of the important features of the Policy. It does not include all state mandated benefits or requirements. It is not a contract. Complete description of benefits is contained in the Policy.

This brochure is intended for distribution to Georgia residents only.

Premium varies based upon the benefits selected.

If Not Applying Online, How Do I Apply For Coverage?

- Completely fill out the application, answer all the questions, sign and date.
- Calculate your monthly premium on the "Monthly Rate Calculation Worksheet" above.
- Method Of Payment section is on the application. You can choose from two payment methods by:
 - Making your check or money order payable to "Empire Fire and Marine Insurance Company"
If paying by check or money order, faxed applications are not acceptable.
 - Credit card payment of either Visa or Master Card
 (Legible faxed applications are acceptable only when paying by credit card.)
- If you are paying for more than one month, simply multiply the Initial Monthly Remittance by the number of months being paid. If you are prepaying for 6 months and you cancel during the term you will not receive a refund.

Subsequent Payments

Easy monthly premium payment via check, money order or credit card. If coverage is approved and you pay monthly, you will receive coupons with your insurance Policy indicating the amount due for each additional month of coverage. Your coverage may remain in force for up to 6 months as long as you prepay or as long as you pay each monthly premium when due.

It is your responsibility to mail your monthly premium remittance coupon with the amount due.

When is Coverage Effective?

The earliest effective date coverage can be assigned is 12:01 a.m. on the date following the postmark date on the envelope (or the fax date) or the date requested on the application, if later. If the postmark/fax date is the 28th or later, the coverage effective date will be the first of the following month or date requested, if later. If the original envelope is not included, the effective date will be the date received by the administrator (NIA Corporation).
